

sword

belt adornments

Image from: Wikimedia Commons/Public domain

belt buckle

Image from: Getty Images/Print Collector

shoulder clasp

Image from: Getty Images/DEA PICTURE LIBRARY

purse lid

Image from: Wikimedia Commons/Public domain

The Franks casket

helmet (replica)

Images from: Getty Images/Universal History Archive

Byzantine bowls

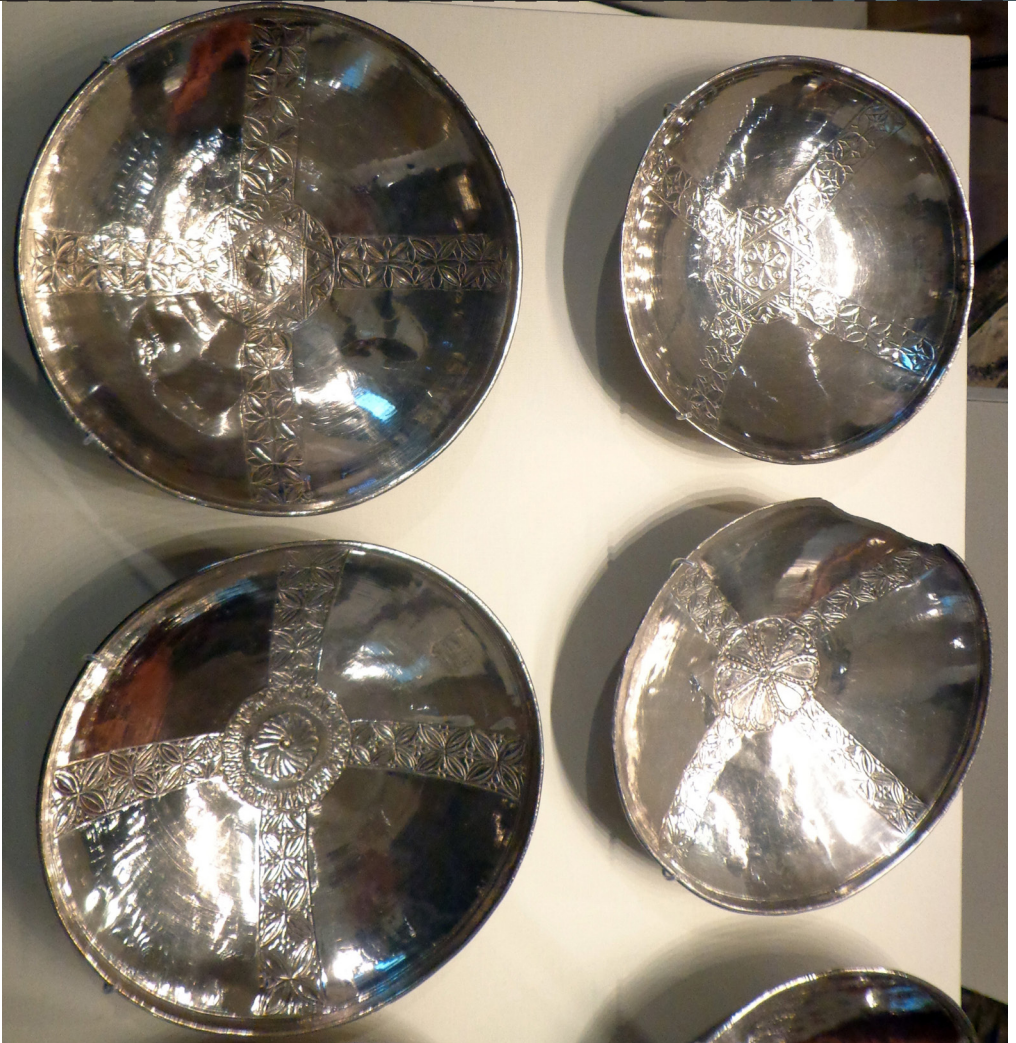

Image from: Getty Images/Geography Photos

shield (replica)

Image from: Wikimedia Commons/Public domain

Roman ceremonial drinking cup

Questions

1. What materials do you think these objects are made from?

Belt buckle _____

Shoulder clasp _____

Helmet _____

The Franks casket _____

2. Which objects were used for these purposes?

Fighting _____

Feasting _____

Wearing _____

3. What do these objects tell us about the status of the person who was buried with them?

4. Why do you think these objects were chosen for the Great Ship Burial?

5. What might the Anglo-Saxons, who buried the man in the Great Ship Burial, have been thinking when they placed these objects in the ship's burial chamber?

6. What do these objects tell us about Anglo-Saxon society as a whole?

